women V cancer

raising funds to fight breast, cervical and ovarian cancers.

This is an opportunity to share a challenge of a lifetime. We would love you to join us. If you have any questions at all or need further information please telephone the Action for Charity events team on 0845 408 2698 or e-mail events@actionforcharity.co.uk*

Have you, or anyone you know, been touched by cancer?

Women V Cancer is a very special and unique event. It is open to women of all ages and from all walks of life who will come together to do something amazing. It will be life-changing in many ways, for you the individual, who will achieve your own personal challenge and for the women who benefit from the incredible work of three special charities working in the field of breast, cervical and ovarian cancer.

Our cycle ride entails five days of cycling for a distance of around 350kms, both on and off road in rural India. It will be a challenging ride that is achievable with plenty of training beforehand. The friendship and the camaraderie along the way however will be amazing. Women V Cancer is managed by Action for Charity on behalf of Breast Cancer Care, Jo's Cervical Cancer Trust and Ovarian Cancer Action. All funds raised by the challenge will be divided equally between the charities with a donation being made to support cancer care in India. The specialist tour operator for the event is Classic Tours.

It will truly be an adventure of a lifetime for every woman who takes part!

Celebrities Dawn Porter and Aggie MacKenzie will be cycling in Kenya as part of the first Women V Cancer challenge.

Having lost my mother to breast cancer when I was just seven I am passionate about being part of Women V Cancer. I absolutely love cycling and I can't wait to take this challenge on. As women we have a responsibility to watch out for each other. Not shying away from cancer and giving people as much help and information as we can is all a big part of that. This event is spectacular and a massive feat for all involved.

The Itinerary

Day 1 Depart London on overnight flight to Delhi.

Day 2 Transfer to Agra

We transfer from Delhi to Agra where we have lunch enroute and overnight in a hotel.

Day 3 Agra

Today we visit the magnificent Taj Mahal and do our bike fitting in preparation for the challenge ahead.

Day 4 Agra – Khuana – Bashawar
 Cycling approx. 70kms

An early transfer to the village of Khuana, where our journey is blessed by a holy man before we start our ride. It's a spectacular start on a dirt road through fields and small villages then on to secondary roads through villages and past temples. Overnight at a campsite near the village of Bashawar.

Day 5 Bashawar to Bhandarej
 Cycling approx. 92kms

A great day of cycling today through beautiful Rajasthan along flat roads with hills on either side. Little traffic today but lots of potholes! After lunch we experience the most scenic section of our ride before reaching Bhandarej village where we spend the night at the atmospheric Bhadravadi Palace.

Day 6 Bhandarej to Tahela Camp
 Cycling approx. 87kms

A tough day with some short off-road sections. We start cycling through stunning scenery to the 700-year-old Abhenrai ancient temple complex through green valleys with lush vegetation, ancient forts on the hilltops and monkeys playing in the trees. Later it becomes more arid and hillier. Tonight's camp is on the edge of the Seriska Tiger Park.

Day 7 Tahela Camp to Doela Camp
 Cycling approx. 67kms

The terrain today is less exotic and more arid, nonetheless it is a spectacular day of cycling. We cycle on the edge of the Seriska Park where we are likely to see local wildlife and stop to look at the ruins of an ancient city before arriving at the most spectacular campsite of our trip in the sand dunes next to the village of Doela.

Day 8 Doela Camp – Lal Mahal – Jaipur
 Cycling approx. 40kms

Our last day of cycling through an arid, desert-like landscape starting on undulating road where the asphalt turns abruptly into dirt road in places. Then there's 5kms of dirt track taking us through a river before we join the tarmac road again to Tala cycling through traditional villages and past a beautiful crocodile lake. We finish our challenge at Lal Mahal where we have lunch then transfer to Jaipur. Tonight we celebrate our achievement with a special celebration meal.

Day 9 Jaipur

A free day to enjoy the sights and sounds of Jaipur, generally known as the “Pink City” due to the salmon-coloured facades of its older buildings. There's an optional tour to the Amber Fort.

Day 10 Jaipur to Delhi to London
 Transfer to Delhi for return flight to UK.

This itinerary is complex and subject to change. © Classic Tours

Your questions answered

How does it work?

To take part you are required to pay a non-refundable registration fee of £250, which is used solely for non-travel costs. You must also raise minimum funds of £2,800 for the Women V Cancer charities. Your charitable funds must be paid in by Friday 31st August 2012. The charities will pay tour costs of £1,349 per person on your behalf to Classic Tours our tour operator for the challenge. In return everything for the challenge will be provided – flights (not including airport and fuel tax), food, accommodation, guides, use of bikes, transfers, medical support etc. The more money raised by participants on the challenge the higher the percentage of funds that directly support the work of the three charities. You are therefore encouraged to exceed the minimum fundraising target.

How fit do I have to be?

This challenge is not designed for Olympic athletes – it is designed for women who are looking for an amazing goal to train and get fit for. A number of the women who will take part in this challenge will have little or no fitness level when they sign up. Women V Cancer is the perfect motivation to get fit, lose weight and have an experience of a lifetime. Once you are signed up for the challenge we give you a realistic training programme, which gradually builds up as the event gets closer.

I'm worried about signing up on my own...

Please don't be! The majority of women sign up for Women V Cancer on their own and you will soon make new friends. Once the event is fully booked we will send you a contact list for the women on your challenge. Often there will be someone in your local area who you can meet up with to train or fundraise with. We also hold an information day and a training weekend, which are both great opportunities to meet people before the challenge.

Am I too old?

Absolutely not! One of the amazing things about Women V Cancer is that women of all ages will come together to do something very special to raise funds for three fantastic women's cancer charities. The age range is likely to be from 18-70!

Who organises all the travel arrangements?

All the tour arrangements are organised by specialist tour operator Classic Tours, the originators of trekking and cycle challenges in aid of charity. The company is bonded with the Civil Aviation Authority ATOL number 3379.

When I first saw the ride advertised I didn't really believe that it was possible, I weighed 18 stone and was massively unfit. I have now lost a total of 6st 1lb, and it is still coming off! This ride has given me the determination to overcome years of low self confidence, shame and an unhealthy lifestyle. This challenge has literally turned my life around. I have lost a third of my body weight, but as a person I am twice what I used to be.

Do I need special equipment?

A cycling helmet is essential. Cycling shorts are also recommended and everyone will need their own water bottles or a camel back-type hydration system. Apart from that no specialist equipment is required. We will supply you with a list of everything you will need to take before you go. Cyclists will have the use of 18 or 21-gear hybrid bikes and it is suggested that you bring the saddle or gel cover you are used to riding on.

Where will we sleep overnight?

We will spend three nights in campsites which are luxurious compared to those in the UK with carpet on the floor, comfortable beds in each tent and washing facilities. The remaining nights will be spent in hotels – one of them an Indian palace.

Can I pay my own tour costs?

How you fund your challenge is completely up to you. Some women will pay their own tour costs so they can tell their donors they are funding their own costs. Others will fundraise the full amount.

What happens if I don't reach my fundraising target?

If you don't reach your fundraising target you are not liable to pay any costs. You would simply forfeit your place on the challenge and lose your registration fee.

Can I extend my stay at the end of the challenge?

It is absolutely fine for you to extend your stay at the end of the challenge to explore India further or to take a well deserved break! Once the group flights are confirmed (11 months before departure) we will send you a flight extension form from the airline, which will enable you to extend your stay.

What other costs will I have to pay?

In addition to paying your registration fee you will need to budget for your airport taxes (currently £300 but subject to change), personal travel insurance, gratuities, optional tours and personal expenses including travel to and from the departure airport in London.

What about insurance and visas?

You will need to take out your own personal travel insurance covering health, accident, loss and repatriation. Classic Tours has a recommended policy, which we will send you details of. You can however take out your own insurance providing it covers you for a charity cycle ride in India. Each participant needs to organise their own Tourist Visa. Full details on how to apply will be provided much closer to the event.

How do I sign up?

The best way to register is on the Action for Charity website: www.actionforcharity.co.uk alternatively you can complete the attached application form. Please note places are limited.

Having cycled previously with Action for Charity – it was because of their excellent organisation that I signed up again. The support I received from them and the other riders on the last challenge I did was truly amazing. I am doing this ride for my best friend my mother who died of cancer last May. I will be 67 when I go to Kenya this year so if I can do it so can you!

Why take part?

Funds raised by Women V Cancer will support the work of three charities:

Breast Cancer Care

Every year 46,000 women and men will receive the devastating news that they have breast cancer. Breast Cancer Care wants to be there for every one of them, providing expert information and skilled emotional and practical support, informed by our clinical expertise and our understanding of people's experience. With your help, we can. For more information visit www.breastcancercare.org.uk

Jo's Cervical Cancer Trust

Jo's Cervical Cancer Trust is the only UK charity dedicated to women affected by cervical abnormalities and cervical cancer. Nearly three women die every day in the UK from cervical cancer with eight being diagnosed and facing an uncertain future. After breast cancer, cervical cancer is the second most common cancer in women aged 35 and under. For more information visit www.jostrust.org.uk

Ovarian Cancer Action

Ovarian cancer is the biggest gynecological killer of women in the UK. 12 women die each day from the disease and the UK has one of the lowest survival rates of the developed world. Ovarian Cancer Action is dedicated to improving women's chances of survival by funding research at the Ovarian Cancer Action Research Centre; raising awareness of the disease; and giving a voice to women affected by it. For more information visit www.ovarian.org.uk

"I signed up for Women V Cancer as my best friend was suffering from breast cancer and I wanted to do something positive. Since I signed up my best friend has sadly passed away – these awful diseases are not choosy – they affect women of all ages and people die.

I am 100% motivated not only to raise the minimum amount but to raise as much as I can. It is amazing just how many people have been affected themselves or know people who have been affected. Being part of this amazing group of women working together to make a difference is a fantastic feeling.

Classic Tours booking conditions – charitable events

These are the terms and conditions of Classic Tours which apply to those who are advised by the charity or the trading company of the charity, known hereinafter as “the charity”, that they will be participating in the fundraising event. Please refer to the charity’s own terms and conditions regarding your sponsorship and eligibility to travel. Only those potential participants who qualify under the charity’s rules will be entitled to travel. For those selected to travel, then the following conditions will apply:

1. Your contract with Classic Tours

If you are selected to take part in the fundraising event, we will be advised of your details by the charity. Your contract for travel, accommodation and other services (“your travel arrangements”) will be with us, Classic Tours Limited trading as Classic Tours of Tramways House, 377 Camden Road, London N7 OSH. If you are selected then we will confirm our contractual commitment to you by sending to you a confirmation invoice, together with the details of your travel arrangements and the itinerary that we have agreed to provide. It is only then that these terms and conditions will apply and a contract will exist between us, which is governed by English laws and the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts. Travel arrangements made by us which include flight and accommodation are fully protected under the company’s ATOL Licence Number 3379 arranged with Civil Aviation Authority (CAA). When you buy an ATOL protected air package from Classic Tours you will receive a confirmation invoice from us confirming your arrangements and your protection under our Air Travel Organisers Licence number 3379. In the unlikely event of our insolvency, the CAA will ensure that you are not stranded abroad and will arrange to refund any money you have paid to us for an advance booking. For further information visit the ATOL website www.atol.org.uk. Payment for your travel arrangements will be made to us by the charity from the sponsorship it has received in accordance with the charities’ terms for participating in the fundraising event.

2. The price of your Tour

- (i) The cost of your participation in the fundraising event forms a part of the overall value of the sponsorship raised by you and received by the charity. From those sums received by the charity, the charity will pay to us the cost of your travel arrangements that we are agreeing to provide.
- (ii) We reserve the right to increase the price of your travel arrangements to allow for variations in transportation costs (including the cost of fuel); dues, taxes or fees chargeable for services such as landing taxes and fees at airports and the exchange rate applicable to your travel arrangements. No price increase will be made within 30 days of your departure date and in any event, we will absorb any increase which equals 2% or less of the cost of your travel arrangements.

3. Health, Safety & Fitness and your Insurance Cover

The charitable event in which you will be participating is challenging and will require a good level of fitness, strength and endurance and it is your responsibility to ensure that you have the appropriate level. You should check with your doctor to ensure that you are sufficiently fit, healthy and mobile to participate in the event. You should take into account that medical and other facilities, particularly for those with any disability, illness or infirmity, at your destination are likely to be inferior to those in the United Kingdom. Accordingly it is a compulsory term of travel that you take out travel insurance to cover any health or injury problems that arise and, if necessary, to arrange for your repatriation to the United Kingdom. You must complete a medical form in order to be able to travel and you should also advise your insurer of any pre-existing medical condition before travel. Failure to advise this may invalidate your insurance cover. Classic Tours reserves the right to refuse participation if the above is not complied with.

4. Cancellation

- (i) If you cancel your travel arrangements, then there will be no refund payable to you as your sponsorship was raised for charitable purposes. Any balance of the sum paid to us by the charity for your travel arrangements, after deduction of cancellation charges, which have been agreed with the charity, will be repaid to the charity.
- (ii) Similarly, if we cancel your travel arrangements any refunds or compensation will be paid to the charity.
- (iii) If cancellation occurs in circumstances where recovery of cancellation charges is indemnified under your travel insurance, you hereby agree that you will co-operate in the recovery of these charges from the insurers and any sums recovered under the policy will again be paid over to the charity.
- (iv) If cancellation occurs due to unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, such as national emergency, natural disaster, fire, bad weather, flight delays or other such events (acts of force majeure), then we will advise you as soon as it is reasonable to do so.

5. Destination Safety and Force Majeure

Your personal safety during the charitable event is of fundamental importance to us and whilst we will carefully monitor the safety of your destination, the Foreign and Commonwealth Office do offer a travellers advice line, the details of which are 0870 606 0290. You should ensure that you are kept informed of the latest FCO advice.

6. Alterations by Classic Tours

- (i) Classic Tours and its supplier of flight accommodation and land arrangements shall be entitled to change the details of your travel arrangements and itinerary. If a change is significant you will be advised as soon as possible and you will be entitled to:-
- (ii) Cancel your participation in the event, in which case you agree that the cost of your travel arrangements will be repaid by us to the charity and you will have no entitlement to such sums; or
- (iii) Agree to proceed with the revised arrangements for the Event

7. Standard and Quality of Accommodation and Services

You should not have unreasonable expectations of the facilities that will be provided which in some remote areas and some destinations may be below what you might expect at home. The level of the standard and quality of your travel arrangements will be in line with the itinerary and any literature you receive from us.

8. Liability

- (i) We accept responsibility for ensuring that your travel arrangements will be as described in literature produced by us, or on our behalf, in our Confirmation Invoice and with the itinerary and that the services we are contractually obliged to provide are to a reasonable standard. If in the reasonable opinion of the charity any part of your travel arrangements is not provided as promised we will pay appropriate compensation if this has affected the quality or structure of your travel arrangements. We accept responsibility for the acts and/or omissions of our employees, agents and suppliers (except for claims for death, injury or illness – see below).
- (ii) Classic Tours accepts responsibility for death, injury or illness caused by negligent acts and/or omissions of us, our employees, agents, suppliers and sub-contractors whilst acting within the scope of, or in the course of their employment in the provision of any part of your travel arrangements in the itinerary, that we are contractually obliged to provide. We will, accordingly, pay to an affected participant such damages as might have been awarded in such circumstances under English law. However, damages are not payable where any failure to perform the contract is due neither to any fault on our part or a supplier of any part of your travel arrangements or is attributable to you or unforeseen or unavoidable actions of a third party unconnected with the provision of your travel arrangements or unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control or an event which could not have been foreseen even if all due care had been exercised.
- (iii) In respect of carriage by air, sea and rail and the provision of accommodation, the amount of compensation Classic Tours may be obliged to pay will be limited in the manner provided by the relevant International Convention. Carriage by air is subject to the carriers conditions of carriage. In particular drunkenness or rowdy behaviour may lead to the airline refusing carriage when alternative flights may have to be arranged at your own cost.

9. Flights

- (a) Delays
Most flights will be arranged with scheduled airlines who will usually provide refreshments, meals or accommodation where there is any substantial flight delay and when this is possible to arrange.
